

A Prayer for the World

Let the rain come and wash away the ancient grudges, the bitter hatreds held and nurtured over generations.

Let the rain wash away the memory of the hurt, the neglect.

Let the sun come out and fill the sky with rainbows.

Let the warmth of the sun heal us wherever we are broken.

Let the sun burn away the fog so that we can see each other clearly. So that we can see beyond the labels, beyond the accents, gender, or skin color.

Let the warmth and brightness of the sun melt our selfishness so that we can share the joys and feel the sorrows of our neighbors.

And let the light of the sun be so strong that we will see all people as our neighbors.

Let the earth be nourished by rain; bring forth flowers to surround us with beauty. And let the mountains touch our hearts to reach upward to heaven.

The Prayer of St. Francis

" Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace!
Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is discord, harmony.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
Where there is sorrow, joy.
Oh Divine Master,
Grant that I may not
So much seek to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life."

*God,
Grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
The courage to change
the things I can,
And the wisdom to know the difference.*
